But it will not be a week before the entire Radical press of the country will be justifying this conduct of their "pet lambs," and charge the entire blame and responsbility of the affair upon the "rebel element:"

Augusta, Ga., September 21.—A fearful riot occurred at Camilla, county seat of Mitchell county, Georgia, last Saturday. The following particulars have been telegraphed from Bainbridge, twenty-four miles from the scene of the riot: Pierce, the Radical nominee for Congress, and Murphy, ex-bureau agent, with about two hundred negroes armed and equipped, started on Friday for Camilla with three weeks provisions and boxes of new arms and accourrements, their intentions being to overawe citizens. Before starting some friendly negro exposed their plans, and a negro courier was dispatched to Camilla to inform the citizens of what was going on. A deputation of three prominent citizens met the mob at a church five miles from the town. The governor's proclamation forbidding armed or-ganizations was read. The mob paid no attention to it, and determined to march on. Again the deputation remonstrated, entreating the negroes to come in without arms and they should not be molested. Their efforts were fruitless to dissuade the negroes, and the mob marched into the town with banners flying and drums beating. They now numbered four hundred and fifty, many having joined them W. R. Now, gentlemen, you must be laboring under a mistake. Do you for a moment suppose that I would give a reent to support a party false to all its pledges, false to the country, false to everything but its own party interests and that of the bloated and aristocratic bondholder? I fought through the war as Colonel of the 21st O. V. I., and my right arm lies mouldering to the fight. The negroes were pursued and my right arm lies mouldering to flight. The negroes were pursued near Dallas, Georgia; but I fought to five miles, losing thirty-five killed and preserve the Union under the Constimany wounded. H. C. DAY & CO Ravenna, Sept. 10, 1868, Iy.

Having this day purchased of C. H. Mills his Marble Works 3 doors north of the First National Bank, I am now better prepared that ever before to furnish those in want of Montments, Headstones, &c., of all descriptions as low rates for the same material and workmanship as can be bought in northern Ohio. It would advise all in want of Marble not to buy of Agents. You can save 15 per cent. by coming to the shop and selecting what you wanthaving had a long experience in the business and being a practical workman myself I will make it to your interest to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Shop on the alley north of First National Bank.
